

INVESTIGATING DIABETES DISPARITIES ACROSS FLORIDA

A critical health concern

Diabetes affects approximately 1 in 10 adults in the United States and in Florida

Greater Risk of complications such as cardiovascular diseases, kidney problems, and obesity

2.3x Higher

Medical expenditures for Floridians with diabetes

Increase in emergency department visits in Floridians with diabetes

Varying Degree

of diabetes-related emergency department utilization across Florida

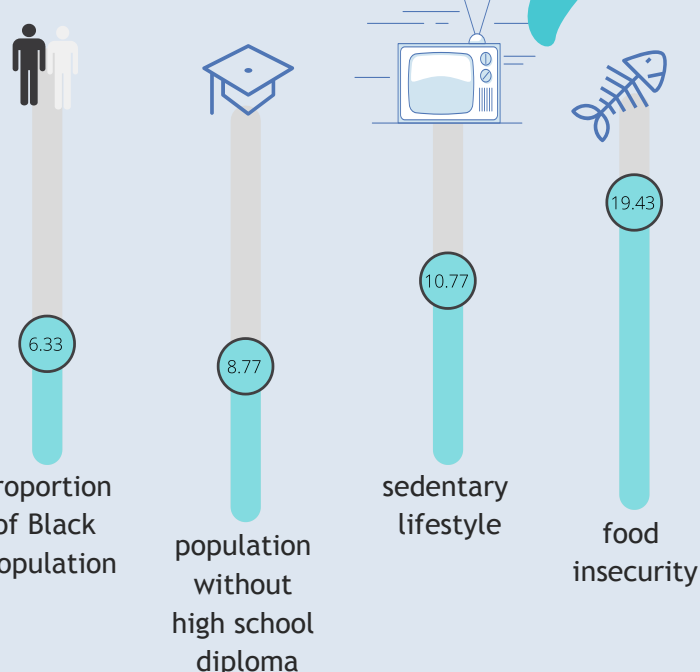

What drives ED utilization?

This study examines ED utilization due to diabetes by county using demographic, behavioral, and community indicators.

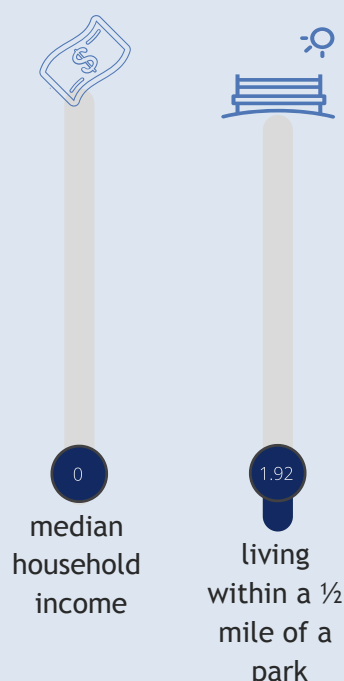

When examined in isolation, for every one unit increase in the following indicators, diabetes-related ED visits will increase by diabetes-related ED visits will decrease by Examining all the indicators together, an increase in the following increases diabetes-related ED visits in Florida sedentary lifestyle proportion of Black population renter-occupied housing units

Are different races affected by the same issues?

Factors examined in isolation

Caucasians/Whites

African Americans/Blacks

No prominent indicators

Factors examined together

Caucasians/Whites

African Americans/Blacks

No prominent indicators

Learn more about our study

